Atlanta Rhythm Section

September 29th @ Loco's Alpharetta
Doors Open 6pm / Tickets $25 each

With Special Guests:

Emily White, armed with her guitar and dusky vocals, has become North Georgia's singing and songwriting sweetheart with a large following. Emily says, "I believe that music is the language of the heart and some songs have a way of transcending all age barriers".

James Arthur is a singer/songwriter who has been playing the guitar since he was twelve. His style is based on contemporary southern songs with hints of blues and jazz modeled after his favorites: James Taylor, Dave Matthews, Jimi Hendrix, Bob Dylan, Zak Brown and Chet Atkins.

Space is limited. Call 770.751.9898 to reserve tickets.
